Vessel Utopia is getting ready to sail from Newharbour to Havenport; the first leg of a voyage that is going to take her half way round the world using the Standard Marine Communication Phrases.

Utopia to Newharbour: Can I leave the port?

(Mooring scheme: 3-2-3 forward and aft)

Bridge to 1st Officer: 3-2-1. Take the line from the tug and fix it.

Bridge to 2nd Officer: 1-2-3.

Bridge to 1st Officer: 1-0-0.

Bridge to 2nd Officer: 0-0-1.

Bridge to both Officers: 0-0-0.

Utopia to Newharbour: Not at anchor. Destination: Havenport. ETA: 02:00 local time, November 15. (Havenport keeps zone time 10 hours ahead of UTC). Draught forward 10.1 m, aft 10.7 m.

Newharbour to Utopia: Visibility at Egghaven is 800 m. and is expected to decrease to 200 m. in two hours. Wind: force 6 to 5 from north, changing to northwest.

Utopia proceeds downriver ...

Gargantua to Newharbour: I have taken the ground.

Newharbour to Gargantua: Are you in the way of other vessels?

Newharbour to all: No ships can move 1 mile in the inland direction and 1 mile in the seaward direction.

Say why.

Utopia to Newharbour: Where can I anchor?

Newharbour to Utopia: Position ### has been given to you.

Pilot to Captain: (He explains how to anchor both anchors and why)

After Gargantua refloats ....

Newharbour to all: The river is no longer obstructed. You may proceed.

Bridge to 1st Officer: Pick up the anchors until they are stowed in position in the hawsepipe.

The pilot disembarks.

Nowharbour to all: I retransmit: Euphoria is on fire. She needs help.

Newharbour to Utopia: Act as the command vessel.

Utopia to Euphoria: I am on my way to you.

Euphoria to all: One of my crewmembers has fallen into the water.

After a successful operation Utopia resumes her voyage.
