Vessel Utopia is getting ready to sail from Busan Port in South Korea to Haifa Port in Israel; the first leg of a voyage that is going to take her half way round the world the Standard Marine Communication Phrases.

Utopia to Busan Port Control: May I initiate navigation?

Busan Port Control to Utopia: What is the maximum depth from water line to the vessel's bottom and the height in metres from water level to the highest point of the vessel?

Utopia to Busan Port Control: 8.54m and 25m.

Busan Port Control to Utopia: You may.

Utopia to Busan Port Control: Do I need a pilot?

Busan Port Control to Utopia: Yes. Wait on chanel 12.

Utopia to Pilot Station: I need a pilot.

Pilot Station to Utopia: The pilot is on his way to you.

Utopia to Pilot Station: Ok. Wait on chanel 12.

Utopia Bridge to Utopia Forward and Aft Stations: Leave one of each of the lines moored. Single up fore and aft.

Utopia Forward and Aft Stations to Utopia: Ok.

Utopia Forward and Aft Stations to Utopia: Done. head line breast line

Utopia Bridge to Utopia Forward Station: Let go the line leading forward from the bow and the line leading at right angles to the centreline from the forecastle. I Let go fore and aft

Utopia Bridge to Utopia Aft Station: Let go the wire leading forward from the port quarter and the line leading at right angles to the centreline from the stern.

Utopia Forward and Aft Stations to Utopia: Done.

Utopia to Busan Port Control: I am not made fast to the shore. Underway.

Busan Port Control to Utopia: Ok.

Utopia now clears the berth and proceeds down river. The pilot now on board Utopia, calls up his pilot station.

Utopia to Pilot Station: My destination is Haifa Port. My ETA at pilot is 2 p.m. My draught is 8.54m fore and aft. I have an inclination to port of one degree. Over.

Busan Radio to all: Information follows on channel 12. Visibility is reduced by fog. Visibility at number one buoy is two thousand metres. Visibility is expected to become less to one thousand metres in one hour. There is a procedure of rescuing a ship in position South side of the navigable part of the waterway at Chung Gu. Vessels must navigate carefully.

Utopia to Busan Radio: May I cross the bridge?

Busan Radio to Utopia: Yes.

Utopia Bridge to Utopia Forward Station: Put the anchors up and down above water.

Utopia to Busan Radio: I will continue at the minimum speed to steer safely.

Regina has taken the ground while going alongside Chung Gu. Utopia is approaching after crossing the bridge.

Regina to Busan Radio: My draught exceeds the depth of water over solid bottom.

Busan Radio to all: Vessel Regina has taken the ground in position 180 degrees, one cable from Chung Gu number one buoy. Navigation is closed in area one mile in the inland direction, one mile in the seaward direction from Chung Gu.

Busan Radio to Utopia: It is dangerous to approach Regina. She is in the way of other ships. You must anchor. Anchor position one mile in the inland direction from Chung Gu has been given to you. Anchor north of the fairway.

Utopia anchors while tugs come to help Regina. Gradually the tide rises and soon Regina floats free, completes her manoeuvre with the help of the tugs, and is standing by, in the fairway.

Busan Radio to all: The navigable part of the waterway is clear. You may continue.

Utopia to Busan Radio: I am picking up the anchor until it is stowed in position in the hawsepipe. Are there any other vessels?

Busan Radio to Utopia: No.

Utopia proceeds outwards to the pilot station but before she drops the pilot, she receives a Mayday distress signal from yacht Bandido.

Busan Radio to all: Mayday, Mayday, Mayday, all vessels. This is Busan Radio. Following received from yacht Bandido. I need help. I am sinking. My position is four miles, 160 degrees from Seo Gu.

Utopia to Busan Radio: What is her position? Repeat it.

Busan Radio to Utopia: Six miles, 160 degrees from Seo Gu. Correction. Four miles, 160 degrees from Seo Gu. Please, take command of search and rescue.

Utopia to Bandido: I am coming to help you. I expect to reach you at 7 p.m.

Utopia recovers 6 survivors and 2 dead people. Bandido sinks. Utopia continues to the pilot station where Bandido's crew and the pilot disembark.

Pilot boat to Utopia: Prepare both ladders on the sheltered side of the ship.

Utopia to Busan Radio: Operation finished.

Busan Radio to all: New wreck in positon four miles, 160 degrees from Seo Gu. The visibility at Seo Gu is 1.5 miles. There is a wreck buoy not in charted position unlit. Vessel with a difficult tow on passage to Amnam which is not obeying traffic regulations.

Busan Radio to Maru: You are running into danger. Submerged wreck ahead of you. It is dangerous to remain on your present course. Advise you alter course to starboard.

Maru to all: I need help. I have struck an unknown object. I am on fire and leaking inflammable cargo. My position is 220°, five cables from Seo Gu.

Busan Radio to Maru: Lifeboat and tugs are coming to your assistance.

Maru to Busan Radio: Fire is under control. Lifeboat is no longer needed.

Busan Radio to Maru: Do you need tugs?

Maru to Busan Radio: Yes, I need tugs. My steering gear is damaged.

Busan Radio helps Maru. Utopia continues her voyage to Haifa.
